

UEMI / Urban Pathways Side-events at the COP 24

COP24 · KATOWICE 2018
UNITED NATIONS CLIMATE CHANGE CONFERENCE

The Urban Pathways project and the Urban Electric Mobility Initiative will organise and contribute to the following events:

06.12.2018
9.00-18.00

Miejski Dom Kultury

Transport Day: e-mobility and SUMP sessions

Oliver Lah will present recent pilot projects developed under the Urban Electric Mobility Initiative (UEMI)

08.12.2018
14.00 – 15.00

Amphitheater

Enabling urban sustainability transitions: policy integration and access to finance for local authorities

Stefanie Holzwarth will present the Urban Pathways project and the Urban Electric Mobility Initiative (UEMI)

10.12.2018
(time tbd)

Academy of Fine Arts, Katowice
Climate Lounge

Living in the city of the future - emission free inner cities, clean air and how to reduce energy poverty

Stefanie Holzwarth will present the Urban Pathways project and the Urban Electric Mobility Initiative (UEMI)

12.12.2018
17:00-19:30

German Pavilion

Collaborative climate action

Oliver Lah from the Urban Pathways project facilitates the side-event and presents on governance issues to enable urban climate action.

13.12.2018
10.30 - 12.00

EU Side Event

Pathways to decarbonize domestic and international transport

Oliver Lah and Stefanie Holzwarth will present the Urban Pathways project and the Urban Electric Mobility Initiative (UEMI)

The project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme and Horizon 2020 under the grant agreements no 604714 (SOLUTIONS) and no 723970 (FUTURE RADAR)

Supported by:

Federal Ministry
for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety

based on a decision of the German Bundestag